Bring your rattles, maracas, and revolutionary spirit! We will take up time and space together in a rally and march for gender liberation. Join TransJustice in uplifting our New York City Communities of Color as we champion policy goals for advancing housing equity for Trans and Gender Non-Conforming in New York City.

We envision a world where TGNC Communities are centered as vital stakeholders in our communities, home and neighborhoods. We will not manifest our wildest dreams without each other. We need you, the artist, the cultural worker, the healer, and folks committed to gender liberation work.

This June, connect with and support the Brick-by-Brick Housing Equity campaign by volunteering your time to phone bank to our communities, signing up for the action team or donating to the Audre Lorde Project.
