

Struggle-La-Lucha.org

STONEWALL STILL MEANS FIGHT BACK: Lifting the Voices of the Most Oppressed

written by Struggle - La Lucha
June 23, 2019

Saturday, June 29, 2019 at 2:00 PM - 4:00 PM EDT

Project Reach NYC
39 Eldridge St Fl 4, New York, New York 10002

50 years after the heroic Stonewall Rebellion, join a group of veteran activists and young fighters from the LGBTQ2S struggles for an inspiring discussion on the historic role of working and oppressed people in the movement and the challenges we face today.

Featuring:

- Bob McCubbin, San Diego
gay communist and author of "The Roots of Lesbian & Gay Oppression: A Marxist View," veteran of San Francisco Gay Liberation Front (1970-1971)

- Lizz Toledo, Atlanta
Longtime queer communist and anti-police brutality organizer

- Andre Powell, Baltimore
Retired union militant and Labor for Reparations organizer

- Reece Evans, Los Angeles
Revolutionary youth activist and producer of 'Struggle-La Lucha Radio'

And more to come!

And join us Sun. June 30 at the Queer Liberation March
Stepping off 9:30 a.m. at Sheridan Square

On Facebook

<https://www.struggle-la-lucha.org/2019/06/23/stonewall-still-means-fight-back-lifting-the-voices-of-the-most-oppressed/>