Dr. Maya Angelou Community High School

300 E 53rd St, Los Angeles, California 90011

Join us on Saturday, November 16th at 11am -2pm as MeToo Survivors' March International joins Mecha De Maya Angelou in bringing awareness of sexual harassment, as well as sexual and domestic violence.

For the past two years we have gathered in Hollywood to march and have sexual harassment and sexual violence survivors share their stories. This year we want to bring the conversation into the community.

We understand how hard it can be to ask for help or to know where to go for help. This rally will help connect those who have experienced sexual harassment, and/or sexual and domestic violence and their loved ones to resources and organizations in the community.

#MeToo is a movement that centers and empowers survivors and their healing. So join us on November 16th from 11am to 2pm.
