Why There Are No George Floyds in Cuba - Webinar, April 11

written by Struggle - La Lucha

April 6, 2021

W THERE ARE NO H George Floyds Y in CUBA

Sunday
Apr. 11th
at 4:00pm (EDT)
3:00pm (CDT)

On May 25, 2020 video of George Floyd being tortured to death by Minneapolis police outraged the world leading to protests by millions of people around the world. Today even as people like Breonna Taylor are being killed with impunity by police, Derek Chauvin is on trial for the murder of George Floyd as the world watches.

62 Years ago the people of Cuba made a revolution, showing that a better world is possible. While a big percentage of people in Cuba are Afro-Cubans, they are not gunned down or strangled to death by police.

Speakers

- Aislinn Pulley - co-founder of Chicago Black Lives Matter.
- Kimberley Washington - Long-time Black rights activist, member 2019 Venceremos Brigade trip to Cuba.
- Pedro Luis Pedroso Cuesta - Ambassador, Permanent Representative of Cuba to the United Nations
- August Nimtz - co-chair Minnesota Cuba Committee, professor of Political Science, University of Minnesota

- Soffiyah Elijah - Executive Director of Alliance of Families for Justice (AFJ).
