Pay Unemployed Workers Now

500 N Calvert St, Baltimore

Regardless of the judge's decision, we will continue to fight until every unemployed worker gets justice.

On Tuesday, July 6, 2021, at 2 pm, we will picket the Labor Secretary, Tiffany Robinson's office at 500 North Calvert Street, Baltimore, MD 21202.

Both Hogan and Robinson can do the right thing and pay Marylanders what they are owed. They do not have to wait on the outcome of a lawsuit."

The Unemployed Workers Union has now received over 2,500 individual grievances of workers who have yet to receive benefits, some dating to over a year, some on hold or falsely labeled fraud. Other unemployed workers are still locked out of their Beacon accounts. The grievances document the specifics and the harm inflicted on themselves and their families.

Join us in front of Robinson's office.
