EYEWITNESS REPORT BACK: LGBTQ RIGHTS IN CUBA

Last year the Cuban people ratified the most progressive families code in the world, expanding the rights of women, children, youth, LGBTQ+ people, and others.

Hear from NOLA activists who went to Cuba to learn about these changes.

Eyewitness Report: LGBTQ Rights in Cuba

2533 Columbus St, New Orleans

Join us at Parish Hall, 2533 Columbus St., Jun 22 at 6pm for an eyewitness report back on LGBTQ rights on this progressive island!

In May, a solidarity delegation organized by Women in Struggle traveled to Havana to bear witness to the achievements of the LGBTQ community there.

We saw the fruits of the new Families Code, a groundbreaking law advancing equality for all families, women, LGBTQ people, disabled people, and elders. Come learn about the country with us!
