Tens of thousands demand release of kidnapped Venezuelan President Maduro and First Combatant Flores

written by Struggle - La Lucha
January 12, 2026

Demonstrators attend a rally in support of abducted President Nicolás Maduro and First Combatant Cilia Flores in Caracas, Venezuela, Jan. 7.

Tens of thousands of people in Venezuela, along with supporters around the world, are demanding that kidnapped Venezuelan President Nicolás Maduro and First Combatant Cilia Flores be released and allowed to return home.

There are ways you can help.

Send letters of support and solidarity

Nicolás Maduro Moros
00734-506

MDC Brooklyn
Metropolitan Detention Center
P.O. Box 329002
Brooklyn, NY 11232

Cilia Flores
00735-506
MDC Brooklyn
Metropolitan Detention Center
P.O. Box 329002
Brooklyn, NY 11232

Participate in solidarity actions

- Travel to New York City to participate in jail support at the detention center.
- Join protests in your home city.
- Union members: Initiate a petition campaign or statement from your local.
- Students: Organize petitions at your high school or college, or issue statements from student organizations.
- Petition at your church and urge religious leaders to issue a statement.
- Send statements, petitions or individual demands to U.S. government officials involved in the kidnapping of the leaders of a sovereign country.

Contact U.S. officials

U.S. President Donald Trump

The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Ave. NW
Washington, DC 20500
White House contact form: https://www.whitehouse.gov/contact/
White House general phone line: 202-456-1414

U.S. Attorney General Pam Bondi

Department of Justice

950 Pennsylvania Ave. NW

Washington, DC 20530

Email: pamela.bondi@usdoj.gov

DOJ contact form: https://tinyurl.com/2x7s4d8d

Department Comment Line: 202-353-1555

DOJ Main Switchboard: 202-514-2000

TTY/TDD: 800-877-8339

Mail correspondence to the presiding judge

Judge Alvin K. Hellerstein

Daniel Patrick Moynihan United States Courthouse

500 Pearl St.

New York, NY 10007-1312